About The Project

PACKAGING DESIGN | Where Creativity Meets Elegance

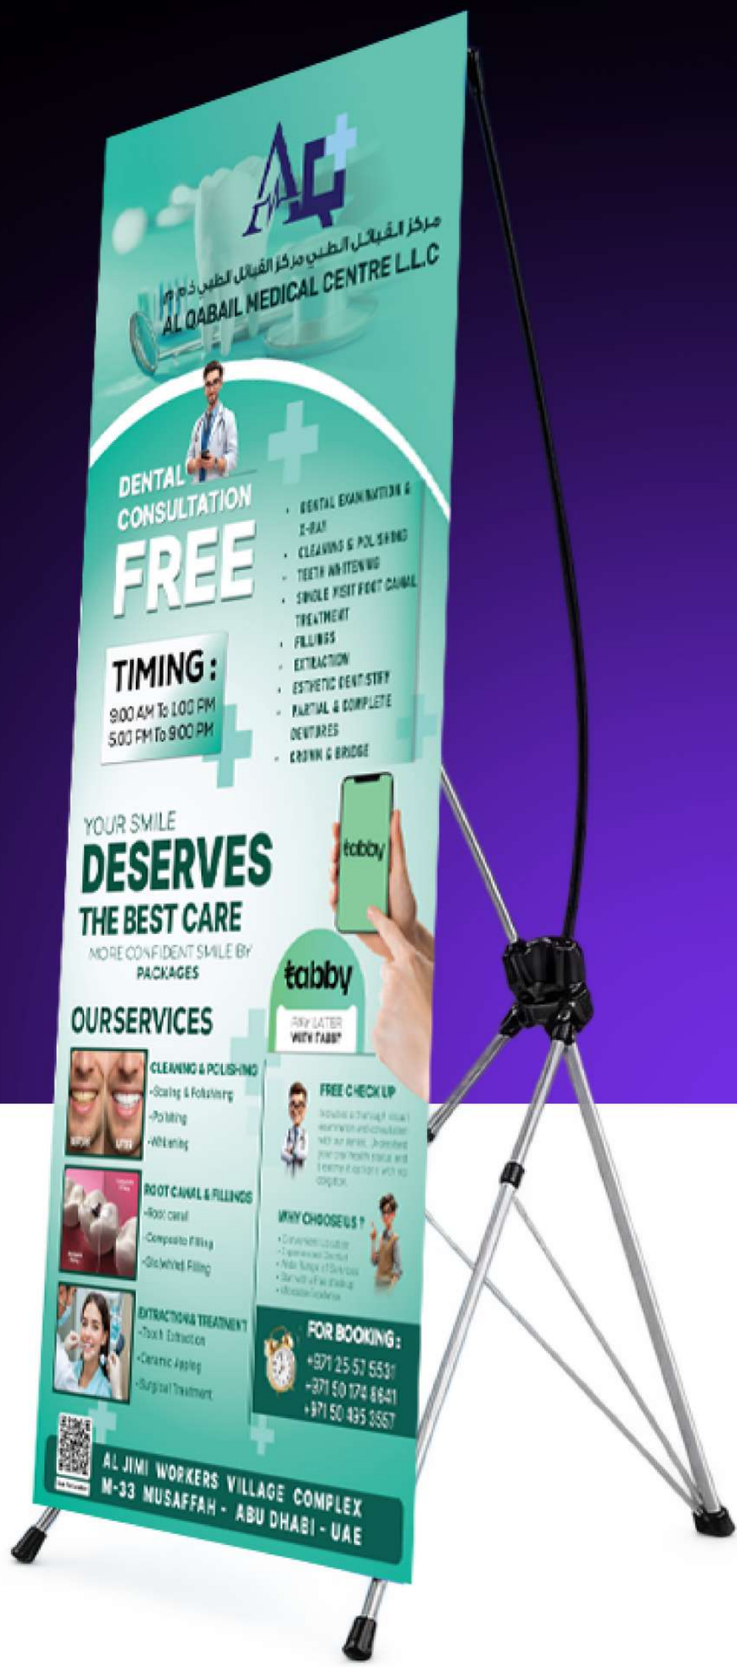

Transforming ideas into memorable packaging experiences. A collection of thoughtfully crafted designs that blend creativity, premium aesthetics, and brand identity – making every product stand out with style and sophistication.

Standee Design

Creative and impactful standee designs crafted to capture attention and communicate brand messages effectively. Combining bold typography, vibrant colors, and strategic layouts to create a strong visual presence that makes every brand stand out.

UI UX

Designing intuitive and engaging digital experiences that seamlessly combine creativity, innovation, and functionality to enhance user interaction, simplify navigation, and deliver visually appealing, meaningful, and memorable experiences across digital platforms.

Client : CINEMA BOOKING APP

Your Movie. Your Seat. Your Experience.

Project Overview

A modern movie ticket booking mobile app concept designed to deliver a seamless and immersive cinema experience. Featuring a bold cinematic interface, elegant dark themes, vibrant red accents, and intuitive navigation, the design simplifies the entire booking journey – from discovering movies to selecting seats, making payments, and receiving digital tickets.

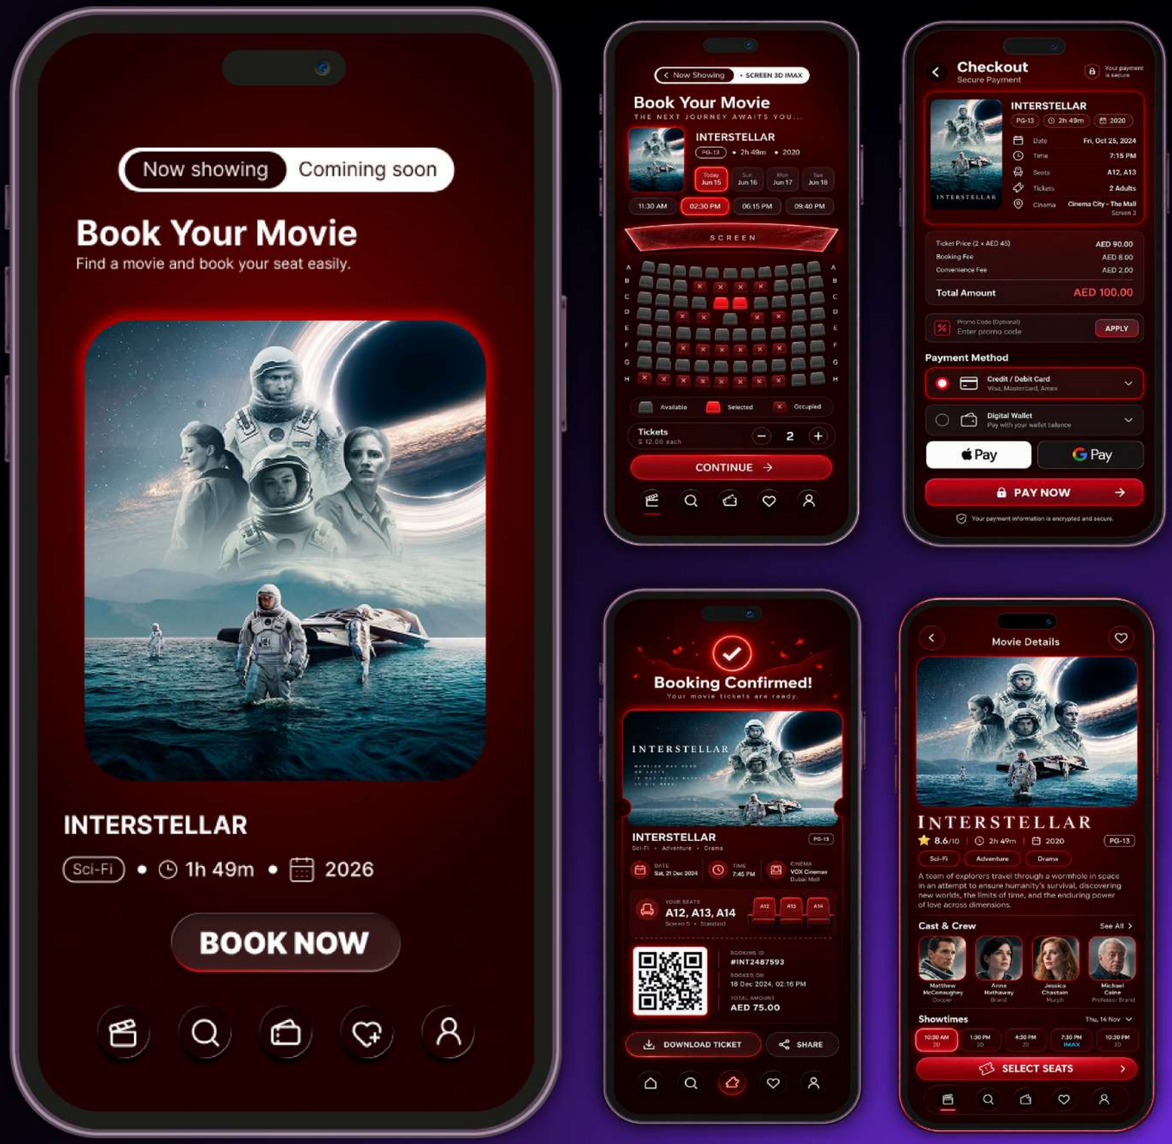

The goal was to create a visually engaging and user-friendly mobile experience that combines entertainment, convenience, and functionality.

Visual Design Approach

Design Style: Dark, modern, cinematic, and premium
Color Palette: Deep burgundy, black, white, and glowing red
Typography: Bold contemporary headings with minimal readable text
Layout: Structured content hierarchy with balanced spacing
UUI Elements: Rounded cards, glowing buttons, subtle gradients, and modern icons User Experience: Easy navigation and a streamlined booking process

Design Objective

To transform the traditional movie ticket booking process into a visually captivating, simple, and enjoyable digital experience through thoughtful UI design and intuitive user interactions.

Client : Rydex - Travel Website Design

EXPLORE THE WORLD, ONE JOURNEY AT A TIME.

Project Overview

RYDEX is a modern travel and tourism website concept designed to make exploring destinations and discovering travel experiences simple and exciting. The design combines captivating travel imagery, clean typography, intuitive navigation, and vibrant accents to create a seamless and engaging digital experience.

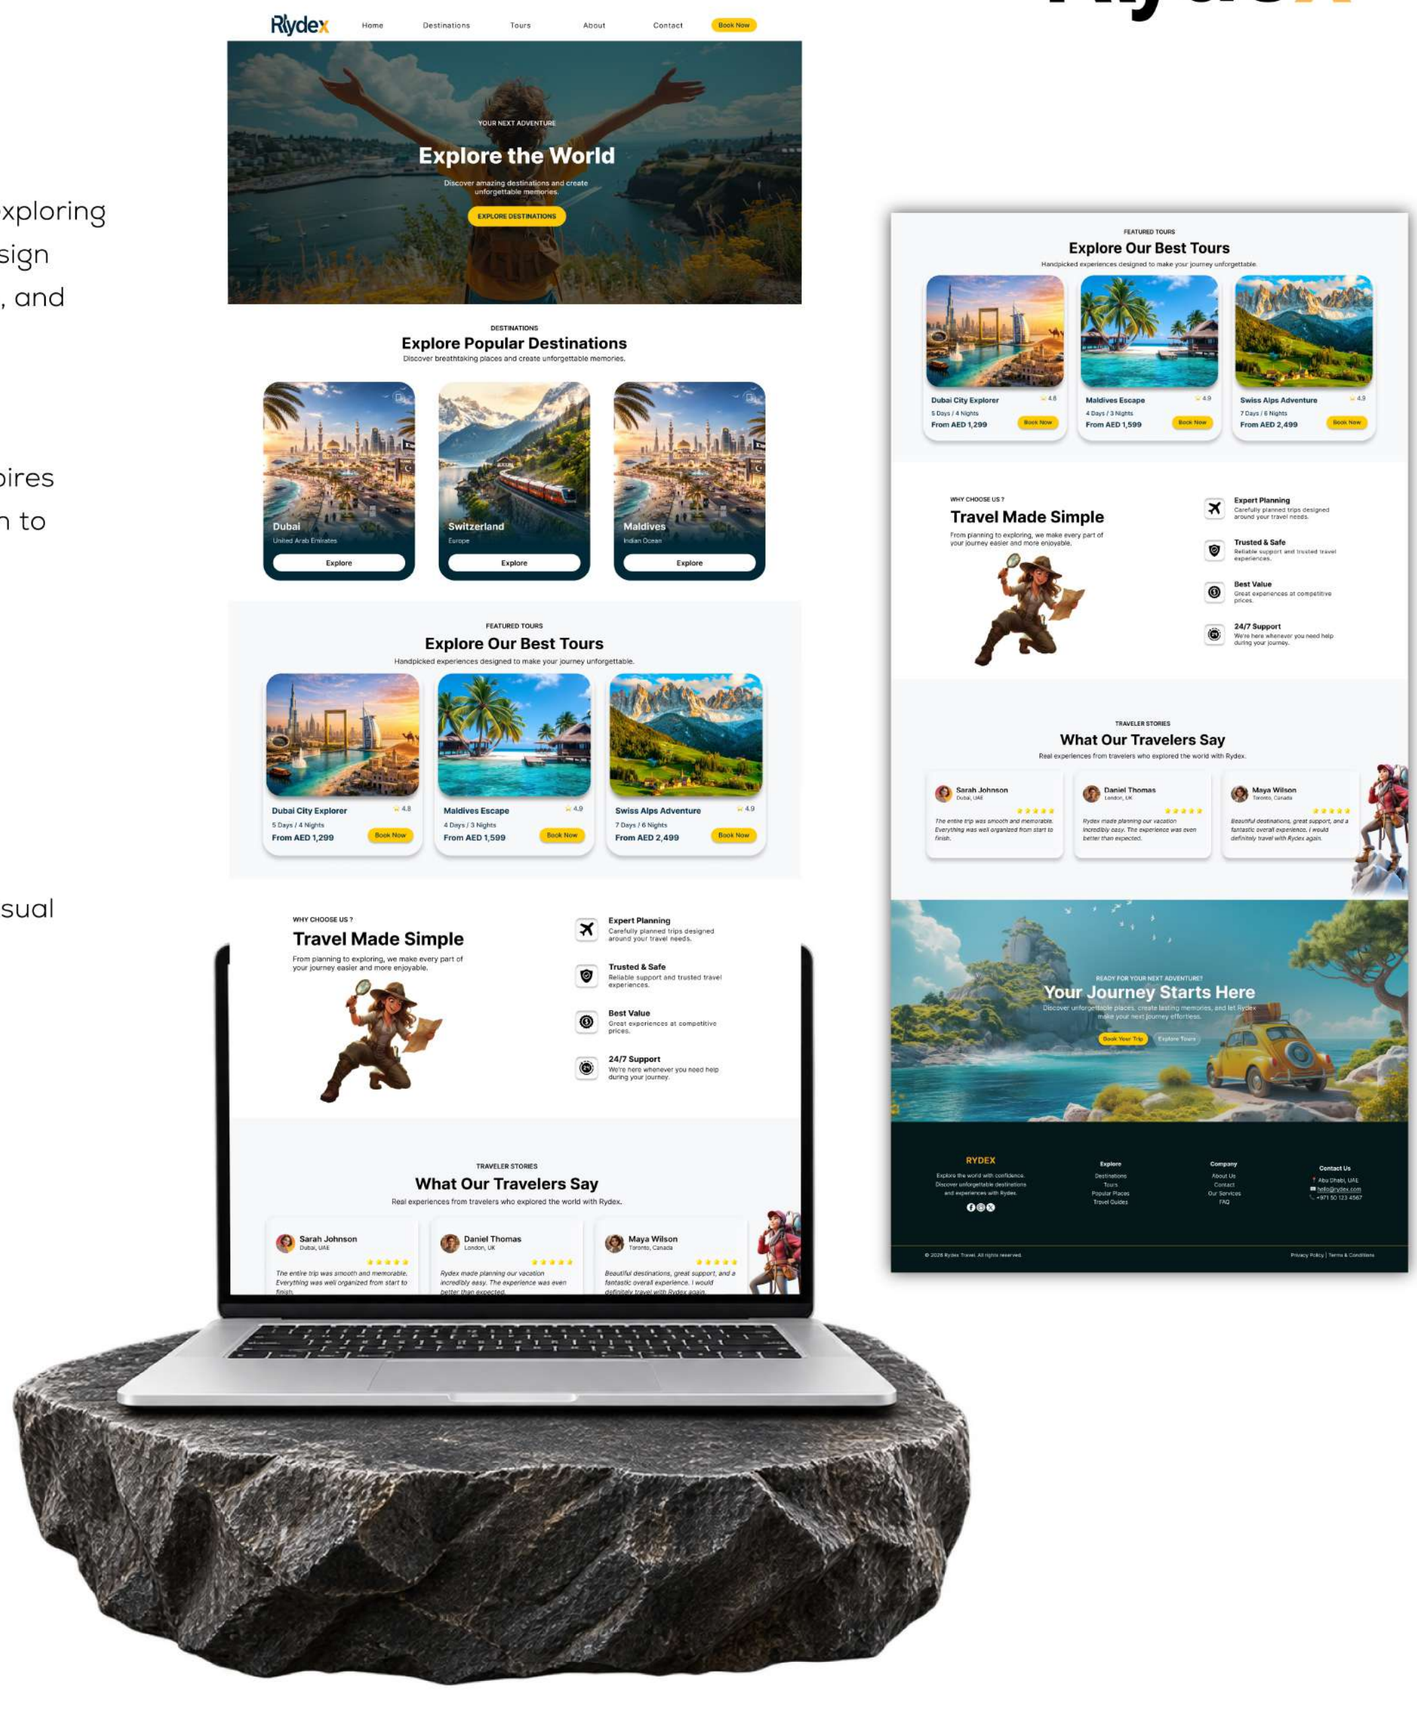

The goal was to create a visually appealing, user-friendly platform that inspires travelers, highlights destinations, and simplifies the journey from exploration to booking.

Visual Design Approach

Style: Modern, minimal, adventure-inspired
Color Palette: Deep teal, white, and vibrant yellow
Typography: Bold contemporary headings and clean, readable body text
Layout: Structured content hierarchy with balanced spacing
User Experience: Simple navigation, prominent booking actions, and clear visual storytelling

Design Objective

To transform travel inspiration into an accessible and engaging digital experience through thoughtful UI design, strong visual hierarchy, and intuitive user interactions.
